

SYSA Soccer Modified Rules of Competition
Outdoor Recreational Soccer
4 v 4 (U6 and U7)

SYSA Mission: "To provide sports activities for all youth where everyone plays, develops skills, is taught good sportsmanship, and learns the value of being a team player."

All competitions shall be governed by the Rules as stated herein in all cases where they are applicable. All members of SYSA shall be governed by these Rules of Competition. These rules are modified from the FIFA Laws of the Game.

Good judgment, sportsmanship and fair play should govern the decisions and actions of all the players, coaches, referees and spectators.

These rules are subject to changes/edits as needed.

Law 1 Field of Play

The following specifications are applicable to all 4 v 4 competitions administered by SYSA.

Dimensions: The field of play must be rectangular. The length of the touchline must be greater than the length of the goal line.

Length: minimum length 25 yards - maximum length is 35 yards

Width: minimum width is 15 yards - maximum width is 20 yards

Field markings.

Field of play is divided into two halves by a halfway line.

Goal Area: 6 yard line drawn from sideline to sideline

Penalty area: none

Corner arc: none

Goals: 4'x 6' Goals will be placed on the center of each goal line. In case permanent goals are not available, flags or cones may be used to mark the goals (6 feet wide). If cones are used for goals, the top of the player's hands will determine the "imaginary" height of the crossbar. For the players' safety, no one should hang from the crossbar of the goal at any time during a game or practice.

Each team, its coaches, players and spectators shall be on opposite sides of the field. The designated home team shall have choice of sides.

Players, coaches and spectators should not be along the goal area touchline or be behind the goal line.

A game may be postponed at the field site if weather conditions are too hazardous for play. Extreme weather includes lightning, snow or ice on the ground. Rain is not a reason to postpone play.

No dogs or pets allowed near the playing field.

Law 2 The Ball

A size three (3) ball will be used for all practices and games.
The home team is responsible for providing the game ball.

Law 3 The Players

The match is played by two teams, each consisting of not more than four (4) players. There are no goalkeepers.

Maximum team roster is eight (8). Each player shall receive 50% of the total playing time. The coach is responsible to enforce this rule.

Teams may not place a defender in front of the goal to try and prevent the opposing team from scoring. Defenders may remain in their own half of the field to teach basic positioning but defenders will not be allowed to simply remain within a few yards of the goal at all times.

Substitutions.

Substitutions may be made, with the consent of the referee, during any stoppage of play or for an injury. Substitutions will be allowed in order to give an opportunity for all players to get equal playing time and to balance rather than run up the score.

Players not on the field of play must remain two (2) yards behind the touchline and not along the goal area or behind the goal line.

Law 4 Player Equipment

Conform to FIFA Laws of the Game.

A minimum “official” uniform is the standard SYSA issued jersey with number, black shorts, and socks. Shin guards are MANDATORY for practices and games. Socks must be worn up and over the shin guards. Safety.

A player must not use equipment or wear anything which is dangerous to himself or another player (including any kind of jewelry, with exception of a medical alert bracelet).

All or any member(s) of a team may wear extra protective clothing against the cold, including gloves without dangerous, protruding or hard objects provided that: (1) The proper team uniform is worn outermost; and (2) any hat should be without peak, bill or dangling or protruding object of any kind; and (3) referee discretion may be used to determine if an item of protective clothing is considered to go beyond the purpose of providing a means of retaining body heat.

No player shall be allowed to play in any regularly scheduled practice or game with an injury or a known medical condition, which can be communal or aggravated by playing.

Prosthetic Devices require a physician’s permission before a player may play and it must state the player needs to wear the device in order to play. Even then, such devices must pose no danger to other players on the field. The referee’s judgment shall be the final determining factor.

Law 5 The Referee

Games will be officiated by a parent/coach from both teams. A parent/coach from the home team will referee the first half and a parent/coach from the away team will referee the second half. The parent/coach must refrain from coaching while refereeing. Coaches may agree to coach/officiate the entire game together to provide developmental guidance to the young players.

It shall be the duty of the parent/coach refereeing the game to encourage clean competition and good sportsmanship at all times and to enforce the rules and regulations of the league. All infringements should be explained to the player.

The coach/parent refereeing the game will have the responsibility of ensuring that any player bleeding from a wound leaves the field of play. The player may only return on receiving a signal from the coach/parent refereeing the game who is satisfied that the bleeding has stopped.

Law 6 Other Officials

None.

Law 7 Duration of the Match

Four (4) x eight (8) minute quarters with 1-minute quarter breaks and a 5-minute halftime break.

Law 8 Start and Restart of Play

Conform to the FIFA Laws of the Game, with the exception that the defending team is at least four (4) yards from the ball until it is in play.

Restarting play after temporary delay, there will be a drop ball at the spot where the ball was declared dead. The ball shall be deemed “in play” when the ball has touched the ground.

Law 9 Ball in and out of play

Conform to the FIFA Laws of the game.

The ball is out of play when it is wholly crossed the whole goal line or whole touchline, whether it is on the ground or in the air.

The ball is out of play, when the referee has stopped the game.

Law 10 Method of Scoring

Conform to the FIFA Laws of the game.

A goal is scored when the whole of the ball has crossed the whole of the goal line on the ground or in the air between the goal posts and under the crossbar.

In the event that cones are used for markers, the height of the crossbar will be determined by the height of the goalkeeper’s hands.

There will be no published team standings and game scores will not be recorded.

Law 11 Offside

None. The offside rule will not apply to any 4 v 4 match however the intent of the rule will be followed.

Positioning a player in front of the opponent’s goal irrespective of the location of the ball on the field is contrary to the aims of the program. The referee shall take appropriate action to prevent this kind of play (an indirect kick to the offended team and instructional statements to the violating players and coach).

Law 12 Fouls and Misconducts

Conform to the FIFA Laws of the game. Play should be stopped when a player acts in a careless, reckless or dangerous manner. The volunteer coach/official should explain the infringement to the player. Play is restarted with indirect free kick for the opposing team.

Fouls against an opponent may include: charges, jumps at, kicks or attempts to kick, pushes, strikes or attempts to strike, tackles or challenges, trips or attempts to trip, holds an opponent, impedes an opponent with contact, or spits at an opponent. Deliberately handles the ball is a foul.

No heading.

No slide tackling.

Misconduct: No cards shall be shown to this age group. A referee may ask a player to temporarily sub out if the behavior would have warranted a misconduct.

If a player is too rambunctious, the referee should ask the coach to make a substitution to give the child a chance to calm down before returning to play.

Law 13 Free Kicks

Conform to the FIFA Laws of the Game, with the exception that all free kicks are indirect and the opponents are to be at least four (4) yards away from the ball until it is kicked.

A goal cannot be scored from an INDIRECT free kick unless the ball has been played or touched by a player other than the kicker before passing through the goal.

The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

Law 14 Penalty Kicks

None. Penalty kicks will not be awarded at the age level.

Law 15 Throw In

Conform to the FIFA Laws of the Game. The ball is out of play when it is wholly crosses the whole touchline, whether it is on the ground or in the air.

The throw in shall be taken from the point where it crossed the touch line by a player of the opposing team.

The thrower must face the field of play and must keep both feet on the ground while releasing the ball.

He/she shall use both hands on both sides of the ball to deliver the ball from behind and over his/her head.

Several do-overs may be allowed if an incorrect throw in occurs. Before the re-throw, the referee will instruct the thrower on proper technique and then proceed with the re-throw. The thrower may not play the ball until another player has touched it. If the thrower plays the ball a second time before another player has touched it, the above re-throw rules will apply. A goal shall not be scored directly from the throw-in.

Law 16 Goal Kick

When the whole of the ball passes over the whole of the goal line, excluding the portion between the goal posts and under the crossbar (either in the air or on the ground), having last been played by one of the players on the attacking team, a goal kick will be awarded. A goal kick may be taken from anywhere inside the goal area by any member of the defending team. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player. The ball is in play when it crosses outside the goal area. The opposing team shall stand at the halfway line until the ball is kicked into play.

Law 17 Corner Kick

Conform to the FIFA Laws of the Game with the exception that the ball shall be placed in the corner of the field and the opposing players are to be at least four (4) yards from the ball until it is kicked. When the whole of the ball passes over the whole of the goal line excluding that portion between the goal posts and under the crossbar, (either in the air or on the ground), having last been played by one of the defending team, a player of the attacking team shall have a corner kick. The ball shall be placed in the general vicinity of the corner and shall be kicked into play from that position by an attacking player. In a 4 v 4 match, a goal may not be scored directly from a corner kick. The kicker shall not play the ball a second time until it has been touched or played by another player.

Miscellaneous Rules

Team Responsibilities

All teams are responsible for the cleanup of the fields after each game. Please do not leave garbage on the sidelines. Opposing coaches and players are encouraged to shake hands (fist bump or give high fives) after each match. Please help put away the field signs and goals if you are the last game of the day.

Parents and Spectators should enjoy and encourage the activity of the players and refrain from coaching during the match.

Coach Responsibilities

The coach or designated adult should attend every practice and every game. All coaches, team managers, and assistants must comply with all Risk Management requirements. There must be an approved adult at all functions. The coach shall collect a WYS Medical Release form, available on the SYSA website, signed from the parent/guardian for all players and have access to these forms at all practices and games. Coaches, their assistants or spectators are not allowed on the field of play during the game unless permission is given by the referee (in case of emergencies or unusual situations). The coach is responsible for his own behavior as well as that of his players, parents and spectators on his/her side of the field. Remember this is just for fun. Every player must play in each game at least 50% of the playing time unless they are not able to play due to illness or injury. Coaching from the sidelines is permitted but not recommended. Coaching must be done in a civil manner and the tone of voice will be informational and encouraging, not demanding or critical. Make sure that your players are properly equipped and ready to play. In case of injuries during the game, assure that the player is properly attended to. Check his/her condition after the game and follow up with a call to the home in the evening. In the event an injured player requires medical attention, he/she must have a written release from the doctor before returning to practice or play with the team.

A coach shall complete an Incident Report, available on the SYSA website, and submit to the SYSA office within 48 hours of injury/incidence.

Practices

Only one (1) practice per week for forty-five (45) minutes – sixty (60) minutes is allowed for this age level.
